#	Abaza	English
1	йббада	Whom did you see?
2	йылхІвайа	What did she say?
3	йбцхьрагІайа	What helped you?
4	бызрыхІада	Who frightened you?
5	йылрыхІада	Whom did she frighten?
6	йылзрыхвгІада	Who sold that to her?
7	йызбрыхвгІада	To whom did you sell that?
8	дызцхьрагІада	Whom did she help?
9	йылщщада	Who became accustomed to her?
10	бызпшыйа	What did you look at?
11	бабабзаза	Where did you live?
12	йабалба	Where did she see that?
13	банбалцхърагІа	When did you help her?
14	данбагІай	When did she arrive?

(a) Translate into English: йгІайда, данбабзаза, дызпшыда, дызрыхІайа, йылбрыхвгІайа, йызцхърагІайа.

(b) Translate into Abaza: Who helped her?, What did you say?, When did she scare you?, Who looked at you?, What did you get used to?

Problem 48. Abaza (2023, MSK)

Given (in Latin transcription) are some Abaza verbs and their English translations:

- crapsara — to throw after
- čəʕʷcara — to drive out of the hearth
- čəʕʷpsara — to throw out of the hearth
- gʷaragara — to bring into the yard
- gʷarq̇'ara — to jump out of the yard
- bəž'pš'ra — to peek out of a gap
- bž'aʕʷəzra — to slip into a gap

(a) Which of the Abaza verbs naṗəçẑara and qʷdaṗlara is translated as ‘to snatch from hands’, and which as ‘to fall on the neck’?

(b) Translate into English: gʷargara, čʕʷaṗlara, bž'apš'ra, čəʕʷq̇'ara, naṗəçʕʷəzra.

(c) Translate into Abaza: to tear off from the neck, to drive into a gap, to throw on the neck, to tear off from behind.

Problem 49. Dorumi-Koki (2023, MSK)

Below are some sentences in Dorumi-Koki and their English translations:

1.	Na vareyakari ya dairiyo.	While I was sleeping, you$_{sg}$ returned.
2.	Na nega ago niyaka.	While I was descending, I spoke.
3.	Una nega ita ruyafa.	While we were descending, we gathered brushwood.
4.	Ya iruku iriyoma ina dairiyadi.	When you$_{sg}$ had eaten, they returned.
5.	Ya ita rusi koru iriyadi.	When you$_{pl}$ had gathered the brushwood, you$_{pl}$ drank wate
6.	Ina tauga iriyori una ago niyafa.	While he was eating a banana, we talked.
7.	Ina neyoma na boyaka.	When he came down, I went up.
8.	Ina dairisi iruku iriyadi.	When they returned, they ate.

(a) Translate into English: Ina boga koru iriyadi., Ya varesi boyo., Na dairiyakama ina tauga iriyo., Ya ago niyadiri na iruku iriyaka.

(b) Translate into Dorumi-Koki: While we were sleeping, you (pl.) ate., When you (sg.) drank water, you (sg.) descended., When you (pl.) returned, I slept., While he was talking, he gathered brushwood.

(c) Try to translate the words iruku and ago into English.

Problem 50. Turkish (2023, MSK)

Here are Turkish words with stress marked, and their English translations in random order:

Turkish: çöméziz, heykél, heykelimíz, şahínim, seçmenín, seçménsiniz, tacirín, tacíriz, yaverím

English: you are voters, my assistant, we are newcomers, we are traders, our statue, statue, your voter, your trader, I am a hawk

(a) Determine the correct correspondences. Briefly explain your solution.

(b) Translate into Turkish (with stress marked): merchant.

(c) Marking the stress, translate into English: çömezsin, seçmenim, şahinininiz.

Problem 51. Soqotri (2022, MSK)

Below are some sentences in Soqotri and their English translations:

1.	ʔeʒ̣aḥ mebrehe diʔyhe ʕale	The child's tooth began to hurt.
2.	lɛhɛmk diʔyho mɛr	I touched my own stomach.
3.	ŝotede menhi mɛr	My stomach swelled.
4.	derefk diʔyho ri	My head started to itch.
5.	ḳoḥom menhi ʔeʔed	He scratched my hand.
6.	raḥaʒ̣ ŝibɛb diʔyho fiḳha	The old man washed my clothes.
7.	ŝet daḫtar menhi naḥrer	The doctor examined my nose.
8.	raḥaʒ̣k diʔyho seyyara	I washed my car.
9.	lɛhɛmk diʔyhe ṣahan	I touched his plate.
10.	ʔalig daḫtar menhi ʔale	The doctor cured my tooth.
11.	raḥaʒ̣ daḫtar mey ri	The doctor washed his head.
12.	ḳoḥomk mey mɛr	I scratched his stomach.