Problem 44. Mee (APLO, 2019)

Here are some sentences in Mee and their possible English translations:

Mee	English Translation
yanameege	You(sg) brought me for him today.
nakadoogi	He saw you(sg) for me today.
teenedoogi	He did not see us today.
niyanedoope	You(sg) saw us for us
ebukaipa	I saved them.
meege	You(sg) came today.
kaaaakadoope	We two met for you(sg).
naakawageegai	They fought for me today.
aanabukaipaa	You two saved me.
teekameege	We did not bring you(sg) today.
teeedokaipe	You(sg) did not carry him.
teekiyaaameepe	We two did not come for you(pl).

(a) Translate into English:

aameepai eekedoogi
naaameegaa teenadokaipaa

(b) Translate into Mee:

- You(sg) saw them today.
- I did not come for him today.
- You two saw him for us.
- They saved each other.

(c) These sentences can be interpreted in different ways. Give all possible translations.

kameepi edoope

⚠Mee (Ekari) belongs to the Trans–New Guinean family. It is spoken by approx. 100,000 people in Papua province, Indonesia.

Problem 45. Ubykh (2024, MSK)

Some Ubykh verb forms are given with their English translations: