(a) hoţul flămând al copilelor viteze

(b) micuţa cetăţeană a mânjilor frumoşi

(c) studentele viclene ale înaltului nepot

Assignment 2: (6 marks)

Translate to Romanian. If multiple translations are possible, write only one:

(a) the brave $\text{cousins}_{\text{M}}$ of the dead foals_{M}

(b) the satiated thief_{F} of the underdressed nomads_{M}

(c) the curious cousin_{F} of the skilled child_{F}

Assignment 3: (4 marks)

Translate into Romanian in all possible ways:

(a) the small $\text{citizens}_{\text{M}}$ of the underdressed nomad_{M}

Assignment 4: (9 marks)

Explain how these phrases are structured in Romanian.

– Vlad A. Neasçu

Problem 3: Icari Dargwa (13 marks)

Here are some sentences in Icari Dargwa[6] and their English translations in random order:[7]

A. dul mazi ucibda	i. I caught the cat.
B. dul nusa ucibdi	ii. I caught you_{pl}.
C. nusal du ucibdi	iii. The chief caught me.
D. nusal tati ucibda	iv. The chief caught the cat.
E. nusal tati ucibdi	v. The father caught the cat.
F. tatil mazi ucib	vi. The father caught us.
G. tatil nusa ucibda	vii. The girl saw the horse.
H. ul kurta ucibdi	viii. We caught the father.
I. ul nusa ucibdi	ix. You_{pl} caught me.
J. ustal du ucibda	x. You_{pl} caught the father.
K. ustal mazi ucib	xi. You_{sg} caught the fox.
L. rirsil jabu čidažib	xii. You_{sg} caught us.

Assignment 1: (6 marks)

Determine the correct correspondences.

Assignment 2: (2 marks)

Translate into English:

(a) rirsil nusa ucibdi

(b) mazil du čidažibda

Assignment 3: (3 marks)

Translate into Icari Dargwa:

(a) The father saw the girl.

(b) The horse caught me.

(c) We saw you_{sg}.

Assignment 4: (2 marks)

Explain your solution.

– Kazune Sato

---

[6] Icari Dargwa is a variant of the Dargwa language, which belongs to the Northeast Caucasian (Nakh-Dagestani) family. It is spoken by approx. 497 thousand people in the Republic of Dagestan, Russia.

[7] c = ts in tsar, č = ch in chop, ž = s in vision.