(a) Translate into English: lɛhɛm ŝibɛb menhi ri, raḥaẑ mebrehe diʔyhe mɛr, ŝotede mey naḥrer, ʔeẑaḥk diʔyho mɛr, raḥaẑk diʔyhe fiḳha, lɛhɛm daḫtar diʔyhe ri.

(b) Translate into Soqotri, given miʕmimo 'rope', ʔidhɛn 'ear', med 'to extend, stretch': The doctor cured his ear., He stretched my rope., I extended my hand., I washed his plate., The old man's ear started to itch., The child scratched my head.

Problem 52. Quiché (2021, MSK)

Below are some sentences in Quiché and their English translations:

1.	Kawar lee tijoxeel.	This student sleeps.
2.	Katb'iinik.	You are walking.
3.	Oj oj ajyuq'aab'.	We are shepherds.
4.	Keechakun lee ajtijaab'.	These teachers are working.
5.	Kixwarik.	You (plural) are sleeping.
6.	Na kapeet ta lee elaq'oom.	This thief does not come.
7.	In in tijoxeel.	I am a student.
8.	Elaq'oom lee ajtiij.	This teacher is a thief.

(a) Translate into English: Kojpeetik., At at ajtiij., Na keeb'iin ta lee elaq'omaab'.

(b) Translate into Quiché: This thief is not a shepherd., I am working., These shepherds are not sleeping., This teacher is walking., You are students.

Problem 53. Nanai (2017, MSK)

Here are some sentences in Nanai and their English translations:

1)	Arčokansal tutuguxəči.	The girls ran back.
2)	Wačaka dəgdəəčijni.	A heron is flying.
3)	Naonʒokan mujkuxəni.	The boy crawled.
4)	Saman tutuəčixəni.	The shaman ran around.
5)	Gasasal dəgdəxəči.	The ducks flew.
6)	Moren pukčigujni.	The horse is galloping back.
7)	Endasal pukčixəči.	The dogs ran.
8)	Ambansal mujkujči.	The tigers are crawling.

(a) Translate into English: Arčokan tutuxəni., Wačakasal dəgdəjči., Samansal tutugujči., Arčokan mujkuəčixəni.

(b) Translate into Nanai: Shamans flew., Horses are galloping., The tiger ran back., Boys are running. If multiple translations are possible, give all.

Problem 54. Yaki (2017, MSK)

Here are some sentences in Yaki and their English translations:

- U chu'u kochokame bwite. — The dog that was sleeping is running.
- U jamut tajo'ota etbwakame kocho. — The woman who stole the clothes is sleeping.
- U o'ou mesata jinume uka jamutta bicha. — The man who is buying a table sees the woman.
- U chu'u uka o'outa bwikakameta ke'ek. — The dog bit the man who was singing.
- U goi uka uusita bicha'u uka kaba'ita ke'e. — The coyote that the child sees is biting the horse.
- U kaba'i mesata uka o'outa jinuka'u koktak. — The horse broke the table that the man bought.

(a) Translate into English: U chu'u bwiteme uka goita bichak., U kaba'i uka chu'uta tajo'ota etbwameta ke'ek., U o'ou uka chu'uta bichaka'u tajo'ota jinu.

(b) Translate into Yaki: The coyote that the horse bit ran away., The man stole the dog that is singing., The dog saw the clothes that the woman is buying. If multiple translations are possible, give all.

Problem 55. Halkomelem (2015, MSK)

Here are some sentences in Halkomelem with their English translations:

1.	niʔ qʼwaqwəθamʼšəs.	He hit me.
2.	niʔ č qʼwaqwəθamʼš ʔə kwθə x̌əlʼtən.	You hit me with a pencil.
3.	niʔ ʔiləqətəs kwθə šəptən.	He bought a knife.
4.	niʔ č ɬicʼət kwθə səplil ʔə kwθə šəptən.	You cut bread with a knife.
5.	niʔ cən x̌əlʼət kwθə pipə.	I wrote a letter.
6.	niʔ cən pənəɬcθamə ʔə kwθə sqewθ.	I planted potatoes for you.
7.	niʔ qʼwələɬcθamʼšəs ʔə kwθə sceːɬtən.	He fried salmon for me.
8.	niʔ č x̌əlʼəɬcət ʔə kwθə pipə.	You wrote a letter for him.

After studying sentences 1–8, a linguist showed a Halkomelem speaker the sentence niʔ q'waqwəθaməs. ‘He hit you’. The speaker said the sentence was incorrect, and the only way to convey this meaning was niʔ q'waqwəθaːm. After thinking, the linguist said: “Then this sentence must also be incorrect: niʔ q'wələɬcθaməs ʔə kwθə sceːɬtən.” A native speaker confirmed the guess.

(a) Correct sentence 11 (niʔ q'wələɬcθaməs ʔə kwθə sceːɬtən.) and translate it into English.

(b) Translate into English: niʔ č q'wələt kwθə sqewθ., niʔ ʔiləqəɬcətəs ʔə kwθə šəptən.

(c) Translate into Halkomelem: I bought it., He planted potatoes., You cut bread for me., He wrote a letter in pencil.